

The 2nd Korea-Japan Joint Symposium and the 2012 Annual Meeting of PSJ

Following the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Korean Society of Plant Pathology (KSPP) and the Phytopathological Society of Japan (PSJ), the 1st Japan-Korea Joint Symposium was held at Jeju, Korea in October 2009. To stimulate research activities through the exchange of up-to-date plant pathology information and to improve on the warm friendship between our two societies, the 2nd Joint Symposium commemorating the 50th Anniversary of KSPP will be held at Fukuoka, Japan. The Symposium includes plenary lectures, invited speaker presentations, poster presentations, and other activities. All members of KSPP and PSJ, as well as non-members, are welcome to participate. The Symposium is jointly located with the 2012 Annual Meeting of PSJ. Further details of the Symposium will be announced in the second circular.

28th-30th March 2012; the 2012 Annual Meeting of PSJ

Participants from Korea are also welcome to join the PSJ Annual Meeting.

Event:

A Social Mixer is planned on 27th March for Korean and Japanese participants. The admission fee is 4,000 Japanese Yen (students, 3,000 Yen). Other details, including the venue of the social mixer and access will be announced later.

Excursion (Group tour); For the Symposium participants, we are offering an optional Excursion after the Symposium, on 28th March. We tentatively plan to visit several sites: a formulation plant for agrochemicals, such as fungicides and insecticides; an agricultural research station; a vegetable production farm using new technology; and several historical/cultural sites.

We hope the symposium participants, particularly our Korean colleagues, will take advantage of this unique opportunity to experience Japanese industries, scientific research stations and historical/cultural sites. The detailed program and participation fee will be announced later.

Call for Abstracts (Joint Symposium):

1) The closing date for all abstracts is 9th December 2011. Only abstracts received before the closing date can be accepted for publication in the Abstract Book.
